IIK 41ST CONFERENCE

The Insurance Institute of Kenya (IIK) convened professionals, industry stakeholders and partners in Mombasa for its 41st Conference under the theme, "Leading the Intelligent Insurance Era: Enhancing Trust, Resilience and Sustainable Growth."

The conference provided a platform for knowledge exchange, professional engagement, and dialogue on emerging trends and opportunities within the insurance sector.

The discussions underscored the importance of innovation, trust, resilience, and sustainable growth in navigating the evolving professional and business environment.

Stakeholder Engagement On AI and Emerging Technologies

The Office of the Data Protection Commissioner (ODPC) invited APSEA to participate in stakeholder engagement on the FY 2026/2027 Guidance Notes on Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Emerging Technologies.

The engagement brought together stakeholders for presentations, technical discussions, and review of the draft Guidance Notes, with a focus on promoting responsible processing and protection of personal data.

Institute of Certified Secretaries (ICS) Ethics Hub Fundraising Initiative.

ICS organized a golf tournament that brought together professionals and stakeholders in a spirit of collaboration and social responsibility.

The engagement continued into a fundraising dinner, where participants supported efforts to mobilize resources towards the Ethics Hub Fund.

The initiative provided an opportunity for professional Associations to demonstrate solidarity, strengthen relationships, and contribute towards initiatives that promote ethical standards and professional integrity.

Professionals Advancing Governance and Integrity

KLIF Stakeholders Review Progress in Kenya Integrity Plan Implementation

The Kenya Leadership Integrity Forum (KLIF) convened a consultative meeting with members of the Sector Coordinating Committee in Naivasha to review progress in the implementation of the Kenya Integrity Plan (KIP) 2023–2028.

Stakeholders were encouraged to translate commitments under the Kenya Integrity Plan into practical, measurable and sustainable actions. The meeting also incorporated public participation on the Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission (EACC) budget for the Financial Year 2027/2028.

Representatives from various institutions, including APSEA, NEMA, KRA, NCA, the National Police Service and institutions of higher learning shared views and recommendations to inform the Commission's programmes and priorities.

Beyond VISION 2030: Shaping Kenya's Future

APSEA participated in the Multi-Stakeholder Consultative Meeting on the National Conversation on Kenya's Future Beyond Vision 2030, convened by Kenya Vision 2030 and the State Department for Economic Planning.

The consultation brought together diverse stakeholders to deliberate on Kenya's development priorities and contribute to the national conversation on the country's development trajectory beyond the Vision 2030 framework.

The engagement formed part of ongoing consultations aimed at gathering diverse perspectives, to inform discussions on Kenya's future development priorities. The participation of professional institutions in such platforms underscores the important role of professional expertise in shaping national policies, programmes and development strategies.

Katiba @ 16: Professionals and The Constitution

Katiba Day celebration was held at the Kenyatta International Convention Centre (KICC), bringing together leaders and representatives from various professional associations. The celebration provided an opportunity to reflect on the significance of the Constitution and professionals' responsibility in promoting constitutional values, good governance and accountable leadership. Representatives from several professional associations, including the Institute of Certified Secretaries (ICS), Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb), Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), Flying Doctors Society of Africa (FDSA), Institution of Engineering Technology of Kenya (IET-K) and the Law Society of Kenya (LSK) among others, participated in the occasion. The event highlighted the collective responsibility of professional institutions in contributing to constitutional governance and national development.

KVA @ 60: Celebrating Professional Heritage Through Music

The Kenya Veterinary Association (KVA) marked 60 years of professional service and contribution to animal health through an Orchestra Evening that brought together members, partners and stakeholders.

The celebration provided an opportunity to reflect on the Association's journey, achievements and contribution to the veterinary profession and animal health sector over six decades. Through music and fellowship, the evening celebrated professional heritage while allowing members and stakeholders to connect, share experiences, and strengthen professional networks.

Move for Integrity 2026

Transparency International Kenya (TI-Kenya) organized a Walk/Run that brought together stakeholders committed to promoting a corruption-free society.

APSEA partnered in the initiative, providing an opportunity to enhance the Association's visibility, strengthen stakeholder engagement, and support the objectives of the event.

APSEA participated in the Walk/Run and related activities and mobilized its 38 member societies to support the initiative.

The partnership reaffirmed APSEA's commitment to promoting integrity, accountability, transparency, and ethical leadership across professional societies.

Strengthening APSEA-IET-K Institutional Partnership

APSEA paid a courtesy visit to the Institution of Engineering Technology of Kenya (IET-K) as part of its continued efforts to strengthen institutional collaboration and advance the engineering technology profession.

The engagement provided an opportunity for both institutions to explore areas of mutual interest including professional development, policy advocacy, research, capacity building and strategic partnerships. Discussions also explored opportunities for collaboration in the upcoming APSEA Professional Excellence Awards and Annual Dinner 2026.

The engagement reaffirmed the importance of strong partnerships among professional societies in advancing professional excellence, knowledge sharing and sustainable development across the region.

55 Years of Excellence!

A significant milestone, to celebrate the incredible journey, achievements, and lasting impact of PRSK in advancing public relations and professional communication in Kenya.

The 5th ACEK Annual Conference, held under the theme; “Engineering Transformation: Scaling Green Growth, Smart Infrastructure and Resilient Futures” brought together engineers, industry leaders, and other key stakeholders.

The conference provided a valuable platform for networking, knowledge sharing, collaboration and strengthening professional partnerships in support of sustainable development.

Participation in the conference provided an opportunity to engage with industry stakeholders and contribute to conversations on innovation, infrastructure, green growth, and resilience.

The engagement reaffirmed APSEA's commitment to fostering collaboration across professional bodies and supporting initiatives that contribute to Kenya's development agenda.

APSEA-KLRC Partnership Engagement

The Kenya Law Reform Commission (KLRC) held a consultative meeting with APSEA to strengthen the existing partnership and explore opportunities for collaboration aimed at enhancing the participation of professionals in policy development, legislative processes, law reform and public participation.

The engagement provided an opportunity to foster stronger linkages between professional bodies and key public institutions, creating platforms for professionals to contribute their expertise to policy formulation, legislative development, and law reform.

The collaboration is expected to support more inclusive and informed policy processes that contribute to Kenya's broader development priorities.
